APPLICATION FOR MEDICAL WASTE GENERATOR REGISTRATION

Instructions for ADEM Form 410

All facilities that generate regulated medical waste must obtain an Identification Number which registers that facility with the Alabama Department of Environmental Management. To obtain an ID number, complete Form 410 as instructed below.

For each Section, complete the Form as follows:

A. Facility Information.

Provide the name and address of the medical waste facility. This is information for the individual facility actually generating medical waste.

B. Applicant Information.

Provide the name and address of the person applying for the ID Number, and the name and title of the responsible corporate official. This is information for the owner or operator of the medical waste facility.

C. Type of Facility.

Check the type of facility for which the application is being submitted.

- Hospital is an institution providing medical and surgical care.
- Clinic is a group practice facility that provides ambulatory care of one or more specialties, such as family practice centers, surgical centers, hemodialysis, prenatal or post-partum care, outpatient drug treatment centers, nonresidential medical daycare centers, etc.
- Dentist is a single or multiple private-practice dental office or clinic.
- Licensed Nursing Home is a facility providing skilled or unskilled care, and includes assisted living facilities.
- Physician is a single or multiple private-practice physicians' office.
- Veterinarian is a single or multiple private-practice veterinary office or clinic.
- Ambulance Service or Facility is a facility or location where ambulances or other transportation vehicles are located.
- Emergency Services Location is a facility providing nonresident emergency medical services or is a base of operation from where emergency medical personnel are dispatched, such as a fire or police station with EMT personnel.
- Other is any other facility generating medical waste, such as infirmaries, laboratories, blood banks, funeral homes or embalmers, etc.

D. Certification statement should be signed and dated by a responsible corporate official.
